Moravian Karst

Just 30–40 km north of Brno lies the Moravian Karst, one of Central Europe's most important karst regions. This protected area covers more than 1,000 caves and gorges. Only a few are open to the public – but they're unforgettable:

- Macocha Abyss (Macocha Gorge): The largest sinkhole in Central Europe, over 138 m deep, with two spectacular observation platforms.
- Punkva Caves: Boat ride on an underground river passing through dramatic cave formations and emerging at the foot of Macocha Abyss.
- Sloupsko-Šošůvské Caves: A vast labyrinth with enormous chambers and rich stalactite decorations.
- Balcarka Cave: Known for colorful stalactites and archaeological finds.

Macocha is reachable by train and bus from Brno).
